

EmployNV Business Hub

EmployNV Business Hub provides strategies to recruit, hire, train, and retain a skilled workforce. With convenient locations throughout Southern Nevada, we provide plenty of options to connect with our team who can provide the solutions and resources businesses need to grow. Consider us to be an extension of your HR department. You get the support of trained professionals who can pre-screen candidates, help analyze your training and hiring needs and create a strategy to connect your business with Nevada's workforce talent.

Most importantly, our services are offered to you at no cost.

EmployNV:

EmployNV.gov is Nevada's largest database of active job seekers. EmployNV allows you to customize your job listings and sends alerts when a candidate applies or meets your requirements. The site also provides for on-demand or virtual candidate matching. EmployNV can be searched both locally and nationally increasing your chances of obtaining a robust pool of qualified applicants.

Labor Market Information:

EmployNV.gov allows you to research labor market information by area, industry, education, and occupation. This vital information is provided to you by Nevada's Research and Analysis Bureau. Our EmployNV Business Hub team can put together customized reports for your business.

Hiring Events and Job Fairs:

We are experts at hosting successful hiring events and job fairs, including virtual on-line events. These events can be hosted at one of our offices or your business site. We promote attendance through our community partners, and advanced promotion on TV, radio, press release, social media, and our state job board, EmployNV.gov.

Financial Incentives:

EmployNV Business Hub offers a variety of financial incentives to help businesses grow and prosper. Our incentives range from hiring and training incentives to tax credits for hiring Nevadans. Our goal is to ensure that you consistently hire, train, and retain qualified candidates. Businesses must have a valid business license and an unemployment insurance account in good standing to utilize incentives.
