

Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC)

Overview

The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) is a federal tax credit available to employers who hire individuals who have consistently faced barriers to employment. Employers may meet their business needs and claim a tax credit if they hire an individual who is in a WOTC targeted group. The process is simple, and requires minimal paperwork.

To apply for WOTC, employers must apply for and receive certification, verifying the new hire, from the Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation (DETR).
